

Akhil Yada is a rising Junior at West Windsor Plainsboro High School South. He is currently a member of the graphic design and social media team at Connect With Humanity. He is a strong advocate for racial equality and community service which has led him to participate in Red Cross and Connecting to Humanity. Red Cross has let him participate in many events and projects to help many people in our local community and around the world. He hopes to do the same with Connecting to Humanity. Apart from community service, Akhil is interested in music and science.
