

Ashwin is the Communications Director at Connecting With Humanity. He is a sophomore at West Windsor Plainsboro South High School. He looks forward to promoting social justice and advocating for equality. He participates in his school's model congress and debate team. In his free time, he also enjoys biking, reading, and playing the piano.