

Nimai Ponna is co-leader at Connecting With Humanity. He is a rising junior at West Windsor Plainsboro High School South. His hobbies include programming, as well as playing chess and the piano. Nimai looks to give back to his community by helping share information and stories of others by making short and powerful videos. He is also interested in music and computer science.