

Ramya is a rising junior at West Windsor Plainsboro High School South and is a member of the outreach committee at Connecting With Humanity. She volunteers at multiple organizations like Red Cross and a local teen committee that raises money for different causes, and she tutors middle school kids. Apart from this she plays soccer and lacrosse and loves to skateboard.