

Vivan Bist is a rising junior at West Windsor Plainsboro High School South. He has volunteered before for many organizations tutoring elementary to middle school children. He joined Connecting with Humanity with the hopes of being able to make an impact in the community and spread positivity. Vivan is also interested in sports and technology.